St. Priscilla Family NEWSLETTER

FR. JIM'S JOURNAL

I am sure you are all really missing Fr. Ray by now. I got to know him over the past couple of months in planning for this transition. I miss him myself! We need to all keep him in our thoughts and prayers as he begins his ministry in Afghanistan. I want to express my appreciation to Fr. Paul and Fr. Wheeler for all of the work that they are doing to cover things while I am finishing up my assignment at St. Agatha. I am looking forward to the time when I can be there with you full time.

In the Gospel reading today we hear that the kingdom of heaven is like a treasure or like fine pearls that a person would give up all that he has to obtain. What is this kingdom of heaven that Jesus is talking about? The kingdom of heaven is not merely a state of being that will unfold in death. The kingdom of heaven is a way of living in the here and now.

What are the treasures of the kingdom of heaven that we can enjoy now? These treasures are the love of family and friends, the support given and received in being part of a family and community, the sense of joy and fulfillment found in serving and giving for the sake of others.

Let us find joy today in our parish community here at St. Priscilla. Let us give thanks and praise to God to the many people, like Father Ray, who have shared their gifts and talents so freely in the past with our community. Let us look forward to getting to know new community members in the future. Let us appreciate the treasure that is our parish community.

Love and Peace,
Fr. Jim

SEE YOU THERE!

Question of the Week

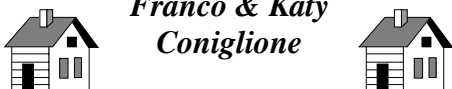

The parables of the treasure hidden in a field and the pearl of great price both point to the necessity of knowing what is important and acting to possess and protect it. Jesus challenges us in light of such commitment to live our own lives in such a way that what is of utmost value to us does not slip through our fingers.

ADULTS: What can I do with my time and energy this week that will show I am supporting what truly matters?

CHILDREN: What persons in my life are good for me and how can I show them this week that I am thankful?

We Welcome

National Directory For Catechesis

In May 2005 the new National Directory for Catechesis was published. The catechists and I will be studying it during the next year. A “directory” is different from a “catechism,” it is not intended to be a summary of Catholic doctrine, but instead is written to help bring about a proper understanding of the nature and purpose of catechesis...taking into account the recipients of catechesis and their social conditions.

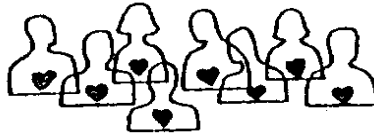

In the Introduction to the NDC it states that the Second Vatican Council called for the renewal of catechesis. This call resulted in the publication of many significant universal Church documents. Two of them being the Catechism of the Catholic Church in 1992 and the General Directory of Catechesis in 1997.

These documents intended for the whole Church have served as the inspiration and foundation for our own national catechetical directory. The National Directory for Catechesis, an official document of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, is intended primarily for those who have responsibility for catechesis in dioceses, parishes, and schools; but all those who participate in the Church’s mission to proclaim the Gospel will find it useful. The guidelines in the NDC are aimed at the continued renewal of catechesis in the United States, and set forth the nature, purpose, aims, tasks, basic content, and methodologies of catechesis.

Mark Your Calendars!
The Parish Mission
is coming!
September 24—28, 2005

Fr. Jim Marchionda, OP and Sr. Ann Willits, OP will be coming to St. Priscilla to give a Dominican Parish Mission. They will preach at all Masses on the weekend and morning Mass Monday—Wednesday, followed by evening services each day. The Church’s Lectionary readings serve as the foundation for all preaching.

Fr. Marchionda is also an accomplished musician. Hymns and songs are a very important part of his mission presentations. He may even be asking for all interested parish musicians, cantors and choir members to take an active role during the week. Get those voices and instruments tuned up.

Both Sr. Willits and Fr. Marchionda have experience with children and are familiar with Whole Community Catechesis and intergenerational learning. Their evening sessions will fit in very nicely with our G.I.F.T. program.

Plan on joining us for some spiritual renewal through prayer, preaching and praise September 24-28, 2005.

Nationwide Mass Times

A nationwide service in operation 24hrs a day. While on vacation you can call 410-676-6000 to locate a church nearby and their Mass times or you can use the internet service at:

www.masstimes.org. Churches can be located by zip code, area code, Mass times and language of Mass.

Free Telephone Reassurance Program

Do you know someone who is homebound, ill or frail, isolated or lonely, disabled or impaired? If you have a friend or loved one who could benefit from a friendly conversation by having a volunteer call to check on their health and safety on a regular basis, please call 248-559-1147 ext. 3437. (A Catholic Social Service Program)

When I looked at you I thought...

...Did you really think that was something appropriate to wear to church?!!!

Thank you to Doug Kane who has set up our new parish web site. We are just getting started so watch for new information to be added in the coming weeks.

Prayer

*God of unity,
I feel most comfortable with others who think and act as I do.
I bristle when someone disagrees with my ideas or confronts my actions.
Help me see the blessing of diversity.
Let me recognize the power of divergent perspectives.
Lead me to appreciate the fact that differences are necessary for unity, and unity is of more value than uniformity.*
